ENDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

New Beginnings has provided yearly training for our students at Seattle Midwifery School. Each trainer has provided clear and useful information regarding the ways in which midwives can approach, assess, and refer clients involved in domestic violence situations. Our students continue to evaluate these trainings as among the most important information they receive about both patient and self-care.

Could your team benefit from a training on domestic violence?

Domestic Violence 101 Tailored

Instills adult participants with a foundational understanding of domestic violence as it relates to both adult survivors and youth. Content covered may include the cycle of violence, dynamics of power and control, screening for domestic violence, safety planning, survivor rights and resources and helpful language to use when offering support. Work with real case scenarios to apply information learned.

Based on your specific needs, your training can be tailored for your particular role, industry and population. Trainings are available for health care providers, social service providers, corporate groups, teachers, community members and university students. Topics may include but are not limited to: DV in a Healthcare Setting, Effects of Abuse on Children, DV & Housing, DV & Immigrant/Refugee Communities and DV in the Workplace.

High quality customized training at your place of business.
